

CURRENT CONCEPTS IN FIXATION: VOLUME V

(A Supplement to the January 2002 Issue, 31[1S])

To Fix or Not to Fix? Robert F. Ostrum, MD. 31(1S): 3, January

Radiographic Anatomy of the Tibial Plateau. Brian L. Davison, MD, and Robert F. Ostrum, MD. 31(1S):4, January

Management of Ipsilateral Distal Tibia and Ankle Fractures. Stephen L. Henry, MD. 31(1S):7, January

Hemiarthroplasty for Complex Fractures of the Proximal Humerus: Surgical Technique and Results With the Atlas Trimodular Prosthesis. Struan H. Coleman, MD, PhD, and Edward V. Craig, MD. 31(1S):11, January

The Bioresorbable Syndesmotic Screw: Application of Polymer Technology in Ankle Fractures. Stuart D. Miller, MD, and Roy J. Carls, MD. 31(1S):18, January

A Biomechanical Study of Femoral Neck Fracture Fixation With the VHS® Vari-Angle Hip Fixation System. Solomon H. Chaim, MD, Debi P. Mukherjee, ScD, Alan L. Ogden, BS, Raymond H. Mayeux, BS, Kalia K. Sadasivan, MD, and James A. Albright, MD. 31(1S):22, January

REDEFINING ANTITHROMBOTIC THERAPY IN ORTHOPEDIC SURGERY

(A Supplement to the April 2002 Issue, 31[4S])

Introduction. Guy D. Paiement, MD. 31(4S):3, April

Optimizing Antithrombotic Therapy for Venous Thromboembolism Prophylaxis. James E. Muntz, MD. 31(4S):4, April

Mechanical Prophylaxis of Venous Thromboembolism After Orthopedic Surgery. Guy D. Paiement, MD. 31(4S):11, April

Antithrombotic Therapy: Current Pharmacologic Strategies. Guy D. Paiement, MD. 31(4S):16, April

Selective Factor Xa Inhibitors: From Concept to Practice. Kenneth A. Bauer, MD. 31(4S):20, April

Conclusion. Guy D. Paiement, MD. 31(4S):23, April

VENOUS THROMBOEMBOLIC DISEASE PROPHYLAXIS IN PATIENTS UNDERGOING ORTHOPEDIC SURGERY OF THE LOWER EXTREMITY
(A Supplement to the September 2002 Issue, 31[9S])

Introduction: Venous Thromboembolic Disease Prophylaxis in Patients Undergoing Orthopedic Surgery of the Lower Extremity. Clifford W. Colwell, Jr., MD. 31(9S):2, September

Multimodal Prophylaxis of Venous Thrombosis. Eduardo A. Salvati, MD. 31(9S):4, September

Venous Thromboembolic Prophylaxis Following Total Hip Arthroplasty: A North American Perspective. Charles R. Clark, MD. 31(9S):12, September

Clinical Implications of Thromboprophylaxis in the Management of Total Hip and Knee Arthroplasty. Harry B. Skinner, MD, PhD, and Michele M. Schulz, MD. 31(9S):20, September

Extended-Duration Low-Molecular-Weight Heparin Prophylaxis Following Total Joint Arthroplasty. Peter G. Whang, MD, and Jay R. Lieberman, MD. 31(9S):31, September

SELECTIVE FACTOR XA INHIBITORS: PRACTICAL GUIDELINES FOR USE

(A Supplement to the November 2002 Issue, 31[11S])

Introduction: Selective Factor Xa Inhibitors: Practical Guidelines for Use. Louis M. Kwong, MD. 31(11S):3, November

Fondaparinux: Basic Properties and Efficacy and Safety in Venous Thromboembolism Prophylaxis. Kenneth A. Bauer, MD. 31(11S):4, November

Use of Selective Factor Xa Inhibitors in Special Populations. Alexander G.G. Turpie, MD. 31(11S):11, November

Thromboprophylaxis Dosing: The Relationship Between Timing of First Administration, Efficacy, and Safety. Louis M. Kwong, MD, and James E. Muntz, MD. 31(11S):16, November

Use of Neuraxial Anesthesia With Selective Factor Xa Inhibitors. Dominick Cannavo, MD. 31(11S):21, November

Conclusion: Safe and Effective Use of the Selective Factor Xa Inhibitors. Louis M. Kwong, MD. 31(11S):24, November
